

STAND WITH THE POOR, cont. (2)

1. We can hear — them pray for a lit-tle help from a lov - ing hand.
 2. We can see — them toil for a lit-tle pay, nev - er what it is worth.
 3. Who can know what they feel with on - ly — hope to get through the day.

REFRAIN:

What - ev - er we do for the least, we al - so do — for God; and no mat - ter who has less or who has more, we are all one and the same when we stand with the poor. We can hear them pray.
